BARGAINING UPDATE

JANUARY 25, 2017

Our bargaining team met with management on January 20 and January 23.

We reached tentative agreements on five items for a total of 28.

(The agreements are tentative until members vote to approve them after we've completed bargaining.)

Seniority: your date of hire will determine your progression on wage scales and priority in bidding on jobs

Meal and rest periods: if the employer violates federal and local laws on rest periods, you can challenge those violations through the grievance process

Work hours: schedules posted at least four weeks in advance, no split shifts, and no mandatory overtime

Leaves of absence: continuation of your current benefits, position, and shift after you return from a leave

Uniforms: employer-paid uniforms in departments that require a dress code
