

NEW ORGANIZER IN HUMBOLDT COUNTY

WELCOME RENEE SAUCEDO!

In January, Renee Saucedo became the new NUHW organizer at St. Joseph Eureka and Redwood Memorial hospitals in Humboldt County.

Saucedo has a long history of fighting for worker and immigrant rights, organizing and supporting day laborers and immigrants in the Bay Area, and organizing underrepresented communities in Humboldt and Del Norte counties.

“I feel very proud to work with NUHW, a labor union that has historically fought unconditionally with healthcare workers,” said Saucedo.

“I look forward to working with our members so that they may powerfully improve their work conditions and participate in workplace and community decision-making.”

NUHW members in the Humboldt area can reach Renee at rsaucedo@nuhw.org or (707) 273-2974.
