

WE NEED YOUR SUPPORT

Los Alamitos Medical Center and Lakewood Medical Center are owned by Tenet Healthcare, but they contract out their housekeeping work to Sodexo, an outsourcing conglomerate that pays poverty wages.

Earlier this year, Sodexo agreed to a landmark contract with NUHW members at Fountain Valley that included raises of up to 42 percent, wage scales and a minimum starting salary of $14.84.

But Sodexo won't do the same deal for Los Alamitos and Lakewood workers, many of whom make barely more than $11 per hour.

Sodexo's offer would leave most workers making just 17 cents above the minimum wage, while making families pay $300 per month for health benefits.

PLEASE SEND A MESSAGE TO SODEXO BY PARTICIPATING IN OUR UPCOMING ACTIONS
