

SUPPORT THOSE WHO STAND WITH US!

NUHW allies Jay Chen For Congress, Kim Carr for State Senate and Diedre Nguyen for State Assembly are hosting a Saturday morning door-to-door canvassing on October 1. Spending one morning helping get these folks elected will help us grow our power in the community and win better contracts that improve the lives of patients and workers.

DIEDRE THU-HA NGUYEN FOR STATE ASSEMBLY

A current Garden Grove city council member, Diedre has supported campaigns at Fountain Valley by showing up to the picket lines, writing letters in support of our members, and hosting NUHW members on her TV show. She is well connected with Vietnamese media and has been an advocate for Fountain Valley workers throughout the pandemic. She is the labor candidate in the race for state assembly in District 70, covering from Los Alamitos to Westminster.

KIM CARR FOR STATE SENATE

Kim is a current Huntington Beach city council member and Fountain Valley Hospital board member. She has listened to our concerns about the hospital and has expressed support in our fight for a fair contract. She is the labor candidate in the race for state senate District 36, which stretches from Buena Park to Dana Point.

JAY CHEN FOR U.S. CONGRESS

Jay is a Hacienda School Board Trustee and the pro-labor challenger to an anti-labor incumbent in the 45th District, which extends from Brea to Fountain Valley. He has met with our members, helped place our campaign in Vietnamese media, written letters in support of our campaign and will be a strong advocate for our union.

JOIN US!

CANVASS FOR HEALTHCARE ADVOCATES

Saturday, October 1
9AM-1PM

8671 Shannon River
Circle in Fountain Valley

We'll meet up at the green belt behind the cul de sac.

Map:
bit.ly/3xuKqDe