We are workers at Los Alamitos Medical Center. We work for Morrison and Crothall, which are subsidiaries of Compass Group, a British multinational contractor that earned $32.7 billion in revenue in 2019. Compass operates in 45 countries and employs 600,000 workers. In North America alone, Compass earned $20.4 billion last year. Compass North America CEO Gary Green earned $7.8 million in 2019.

Tenet Healthcare Corporation is the owner of Los Alamitos Hospital, and contracts with Morrison & Crothall for food and housekeeping services. Tenet is the third-largest investor-owned health system in the U.S., with 65 hospitals. Tenet Earned $18.3 billion in revenue in 2018. Tenet CEO Ronald Rittenmeyer received $14.9 million in compensation in 2018.

We demand dignity and respect from Morrison and Crothall for ourselves and our patients

- We have suffered from WAGE THEFT; we are not being paid on time or what we’re owed. Sometimes we do not have food to put on the table because we don’t get a paycheck.
- On a daily basis we don’t have enough supplies to keep the hospital clean, which harms patients.
- Food Service employees in Los Alamitos demand the same benefits and pay as other union Compass employees.
- We are reassigned to new work areas, despite our seniority. Which has a negative impact on patient care — not everyone has the same knowledge as long-term employees.

Help us stand up for our patients and our families!
