

Latinx/Immigrant Health Care Panel

TUESDAY, JANUARY 11

6 P.M. via ZOOM

Register at nuhw.org/latinxpanel

NUHW and Healthy California Now are bringing together Latinx leaders from across the state to discuss the intersection of health within the Latinx and immigrant communities.

Hear from a diverse group of distinguished figures including labor icon Dolores Huerta, San Francisco Supervisor Myrna Melgar, Unite Here Local 11 President Ada Briceño, California Democratic Party Vice-Chair David Campos and Alhambra City Council-member Sasha Rene Perez who will discuss how a lack of healthcare has affected their communities and how our current healthcare system has failed them in the face of COVID.

Learn about Medicare for All in California, and how you can join in the fight to eliminate the health disparities within our community!

For more information, contact NUHW Political Organizers Astrid Campos at (714) 396-8242 or acampos@nuhw.org or Michael Soto at (805) 657-7452 or msoto@nuhw.org

