

SANTA ROSA MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

READY TO STRIKE!

We've been bargaining for a fair contract for over a year.

SRMH is the only Level II Trauma Center for the region and continues to report massive profits, yet Providence is still trying to force us to accept a contract full of takeaways.

In February, we voted overwhelmingly to authorize a five-day strike. Due to the COVID-19 crisis, we chose to delay our strike to prepare for a surge that fortunately never came. But in response, Providence has demanded that we, the essential workers, give up what is essential to us: our sick time and access to affordable healthcare. These takeaways are unacceptable.

Now, even more of us are ready to strike than in February.

July 20-24

6:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M.

We are holding a 5-day strike to win a fair contract that provides fair wages, keeps our healthcare affordable, and guarantees we have enough time off to take care of ourselves and our loved ones.
